Re: Thursday, October 10, 2002 Meeting

The meeting will begin with a public hearing that is required for distribution of the Local Law Enforcement Block Grant (LLEBG) funds. An issue brief is enclosed that provides an overview for your consideration and recommendation.

Tony Bieda will begin a discussion regarding the state budget situation. PSCC members and their staff will be available to provide additional information. The intention of the presentation is to ensure everyone understands the current and potential situation facing Lane County.

Rob Rockstroh and Linda Eaton will make a presentation regarding alcohol and drug treatment funding and services provided in Lane County. Information is enclosed for your review.

If time permits, I can provide you with a review of the closeout report for the work accomplished in the 2001-2002 work year. A copy of this report will be given to you within the week.

Also enclosed is an article Grant Nelson mentioned at your last meeting entitled "The Effectiveness of Community Based Sanctions in Reducing Recidivism."

Please contact me if you have any questions or need any additional information. If not, I look forward to seeing you on the 10th.
